Dear Parents/Carers,

Ivy Lane School Relational Policy

We would like to share our new Ivy Lane Relational Policy with you. It has been developed because we recognise the central importance of positive and safe relationships in supporting desirable emotional, social and academic outcomes for all our children.

This policy replaces our previous Behaviour Policy and places the emphasis on relationships, respect, responsibility and restoration in addressing behaviour issues, rather than a system based predominantly on sanctions and rewards.

Our relational approach impacts all levels of our school setting, from informing formal policy and procedures to our everyday interactions with all members of our Ivy Lane community. Our aim is that it allows us to support every child to develop, learn, adapt and thrive at Ivy Lane.

We would encourage all parents and carers to take some time to read our Relational Policy.

Yours sincerely

Mrs Helen Fahey
Deputy Headteacher
