1. Introduction

- a. Pickwick Academy Trust is committed to a policy of equal opportunities and non-discriminatory treatment for all members of its community regardless of age, disability, gender reassignment, marital or civil partner status, pregnancy or maternity, race (to include colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin), religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation (“Protected Characteristics”).
- b. It is also the right of all human beings regardless of religion or lack of religion, belief, culture, class, race, gender, sexuality, disability, social economic background, or age to be treated with respect and total fairness. The Trust believes in supporting personal and cultural identities and in preparing its pupils for full and positive participation in society, and these are fundamental values in education.
- c. The terms equality, inclusion, diversity and equity are at the heart of this policy. ‘Equality’ means ensuring everyone has the same opportunities to fulfil their potential free from discrimination. ‘Inclusion’ means ensuring everyone feels comfortable to be themselves at work and feels the worth of their contribution. ‘Diversity’ means the celebration of individual differences amongst the workforce. ‘Equity’ means recognising barriers and that some groups are more advantaged than others, and putting measures in place to eliminate these barriers, ensuring equal opportunities for all. We will actively support diversity, equity and inclusion and ensure that our workforce is valued and treated with dignity and respect. We want to encourage everyone in our Trust to reach their potential.
- d. We see equal opportunities as a tool to provide an environment in which both staff and children feel secure, valued, supported and free from intimidation.

4. Definitions

- a. All members of the workforce and pupils are encouraged to value differences, including dual language, as an asset and learning opportunity. Any prejudice will be challenged, wherever it occurs, to recognise the 'normality of difference' in the cultures within the Trust.
- b. Discrimination may be direct or indirect and it may occur intentionally or unintentionally.
- c. Direct discrimination occurs where someone is treated less favourably because of one or more of the protected characteristics set out above. For example, rejecting an applicant on the grounds of their race because they would not "fit in" would be direct discrimination.
- d. Indirect discrimination occurs where someone is disadvantaged by an unjustified provision, criterion or practice that also puts other people with the same protected characteristic at a particular disadvantage. For example, a requirement to work full time puts women at a particular disadvantage because they generally have greater childcare commitments than men. Such a requirement will need to be objectively justified.

- e. Disability discrimination: this includes direct and indirect discrimination, any unjustified less favourable treatment because of the effects of a disability, and failure to make reasonable adjustments to alleviate disadvantages caused by a disability.
- f. Harassment related to any of the protected characteristics is prohibited. Harassment is unwanted conduct that has the purpose or effect of violating someone's dignity, or creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment for them.
- g. Victimisation is also prohibited. This is less favourable treatment of someone who has complained or given information about discrimination or harassment or supported someone else's complaint.
- h. Sexual harassment is unwanted behaviour of a sexual nature. To be sexual harassment, the unwanted behaviour must have either:
 - violated someone's dignity, whether it was intended or not
 - created an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment for them, whether it was intended or not

Sexual harassment may amount to both an employment rights matter and a criminal matter, such as in sexual assault allegations. In addition, harassment under the Protection from Harassment Act 1997 – which is not limited to circumstances where harassment relates to a protected characteristic – is a criminal offence.

5. Appointments

- a. The Trust is committed to taking steps to ensure equity amongst our workforce such as ensuring that our vacancies are advertised to a diverse range of potential candidates where possible and, where relevant, to particular groups that are identified as disadvantaged or underrepresented in our Trust, with the overall aim for taking positive action and ensuring there are no unlawful barriers to accessing our employment opportunities, training, progression opportunities, benefits and facilities
- b. The Trust is committed to ensure that no job applicant, employee or volunteer is discriminated against either directly or indirectly. Those involved in making appointments will ensure that any recruitment procedures – advertisement, shortlisting, interviews, and selection decisions will not be influenced by perceived prejudices.. In deciding whether to offer a place to an applicant, the trust will treat each application on its individual merits (apart from in any necessary and limited exemptions and exceptions allowed under the Equality Act). It will take a range of information supplied in the submitted application and from any interview attended into account when determining an applicant's suitability for a role. Interview questions will be related to the requirement of the job and will not be of a discriminatory nature. All job applicants will receive fair treatment and will be considered solely on their ability to do the job. Shortlisting and interviewing will be carried out by more than one individual to further remove any indirect or subconscious prejudices.

- c. Candidates, who fall under the Equality Act 2010, are offered the opportunity at the point of application to request the Trust put in place reasonable adjustments to ensure an equitable recruitment process. As such, we will consider and make reasonable adjustments for all those to whom this policy applies as appropriate, in each particular case. If we consider a particular adjustment would not be reasonable we will explain our reasons and seek an alternative solution
- d. Promotion and advancement will be on merit and all decisions related to these will be made within the overall framework and principles of this policy.
For our current workforce, we support our colleagues with a disability or long-term health condition, through making reasonable adjustments to help enable them to stay in work.

6. Behaviours and Training

- a. All members of the workforce should treat each other and all pupils and parents and carers with respect. Disrespect for any individual will not be ignored or tolerated. All forms of discrimination by any person within the Trust's responsibility will be treated seriously as such behaviour is unacceptable and may lead to disciplinary action. Serious cases of deliberate discrimination may amount to gross misconduct resulting in dismissal for employees and withdrawal from the trust for pupils.
- b. Members of the Workforce will ensure that pupils (and other colleagues) feel safe and free to learn by following guidelines and regulations described in our Anti-Bullying Policy and Professional Behaviours, Expectations and Standards Policy.

- c. Policies, displays, notices, meals and uniform requirements in the Trust will reflect the entire pupil and workforce population in terms of ethnicity, language, race, gender, sexuality and disability.
- d. Members of the workforce at all levels will seek to develop strong positive links with the homes and communities from which pupils and colleagues come. The Trust values the fact that many pupils and adults in our community are bilingual and will encourage the teaching and use of community languages.
- e. Workforce training and development on Diversity, Equality and inclusion will be a priority. Through this training, the workforce will make every effort to understand the origins and nature of discrimination of all kinds and to recognise their own prejudices.
